

CITY EXPRESS

Hyderabad, Friday, 10 August, 2012

Urban art

Goethe-Zentrum Hyderabad, as a part of 'Germany and India 2011-2012: Infinite Opportunities' in collaboration with the Institute for Foreign Cultural Relations (ifa), Vidyaranya High School and Arch+ is organising a public symposium - 'Post-Oil City & Landscape of Surprise' that will open on August 11.

The project is one of the highlights of the year of Germany in India. Central to this program is a focus on sustainable urbanization and the challenges that both the countries face with areas such as urban planning, public transportation, sustainability, education and urban culture.

The symposium will be inaugurated by Shanta Rameshwar Rao, founder-principal of Vidyaranya High school, Ann Linh-Ngo, curator of Post-Oil

City, Peter Gotsch and Susanne Kohte, curators of Landscape of Surprise. The session will begin on August 12, from 10 am to 5 pm and the exhibition will remain on view till at Vidyaranya High School till August 26, from 4:30 to 8:30 pm on Mondays till Friday and from 11:30 am to 8:30 pm on Saturday, Sunday and public holidays. The event is open to all.

For details, contact 040-2335 0443 / 2335 0400 or email at monika.hirmer@goethe-hyderabad.com.

Express Features